White Wines

3. House White - Viña Arroba (Spain)

Bottle - 16.90 (15.20)

By the glass 175ml 4.75 / 250ml 6.70

Produced in the large south western Spanish province of Extremadura from a blend of the local Pardina grape and Chardonnay, this is a refreshing good-value wine.

White Wines (Continued)

4. Pinot Grigio Allamanda (Italy)

Bottle - 18.50 (16.70) A particularly good example of this popular style, this wine from north western Italy has good crisp acidity with a dry and refreshing finish.

5. Muscadet de Sèvre et Maine sur lie – Château la Nöe (France)

Bottle - 19.00 (17.10)

From a fine château this classic Muscadet is bright gold in colour, light-bodied and dry. Particularly good with seafood, it has hints of lemon and lime citrus, with a richness due to its time spent on the lees.

6. Picpoul de Pinet Domaine de Lauriers (France)

Bottle - 20.50 (18.50)

A versatile crisp white with a fresh mineral style produced in the Languedoc, south of Montpellier and close to the Mediterranean by producers who proudly use responsible environmentally friendly practices.

7. Sauvignon Blanc Mākutu (New Zealand)

Bottle - 22.50 (20.20)

By the glass - 175ml 6.00 / 250ml 7.50

A classic and really high quality Marlborough Sauvignon - aromatic and vibrant, with intense citrus and fresh herb aromas, balanced by a ripe tropical character and a lingering finish.

8. Mâcon-Lugny Les Genièvres (France)

Bottle - 27.90 (25.10)

This elegant and stylish wine made from 30-year old vines comes from one of the best regarded 'villages' in the Mâcon, and from one of the top Burgundian producers, Louis Latour. Produced without oak ageing it has notes of citrus fruit, musky flavours and an intense finish.

Rosé Wines

9. House Rosé – Viña Arroba (Spain)

Bottle - 16.90 (15.20)

By the glass - 175ml 4.75 / 250ml 6.70

Produced from Spain's famous Tempranillo grape this good-value medium-dry rosé features aromas of ripe strawberries and flavours reminiscent of cranberry and cherry

10. Diamarine Varois en Provence (France)

Bottle - 23.50 (21.20)

Beautifully presented and deliciously charming this is Provence rosé as it should be. Pale pink, light-bodied, with a good nose, tangy fresh fruit and citrus peel on the palate, and an elegant finish.

Red Wines

11. House Red – Viña Arroba (Spain)

Bottle - 16.90 (15.20)

By the glass - 175ml 4.75 / 250ml 6.70

Produced in the large south western Spanish province of Extremadura from Spain's most famous grape, Tempranillo, this is a good-value quaffable everyday red with plenty of ripe fruit flavour.

12. Malbec Tribu (Argentina)

Bottle - 18.50 (16.70)

Malbec has become synonymous with Argentina and this medium-bodied and versatile example from the famous Trivento stable has classic aromas of red fruit and black pepper. Notes of plum and cherry jam, rounded tannins and a persistent finish.

13. Primitivo Matane (Italy)

Bottle - 20.00 (18.00)

Smooth and flavoursome wine from southern Italy made from a grape perhaps better known as Zinfandel in the USA. Ruby red colour, with a pleasant bouquet of fresh red fruits, medium bodied with mild tannins and acidity.

RED WINE (Continued)

14. Rioja Crianza Finca Manzanos (Spain)

Bottle - 23.50 (21.20)

A classic and award-winning Rioja crianza from 5th generation winemakers in the Rioja Oriental region (formerly Rioja Baja) close to the border with Navarra. The blend of Tempranillo (80%) with Garnacha and Mazuelo is aged for 2 years, at least one of them in oak, producing an aromatic and intense wine with a long persistent finish.

15. Côtes du Rhône Villages Les Genets, Chusclan (France)

Bottle - 26.00 (23.40)

By the glass - 175ml 6.50 / 250ml 8.80

An excellent quality wine from southern Rhône with complexity and depth. Deep vibrant red in colour it offers flavours of wild fruit, blackberry and spice - a versatile accompaniment to many foods.

16. Château St Christophe 2014 St Émilion Grand Cru (France) Bottle - 30.00 (27.00)

No good wine list would be complete without a decent claret – this delicious St Émilion is refined and mature. Produced by the renowned Richard family from vines with an average age of 40-50 years it is warm, round and fruity – a classy bottle that appears on other local wine lists at a much higher price.

Non-Alcoholic

17. Belle & Co Brut

Bottle - 13.50 (12.20)

A refreshing and well balanced non-alcoholic alternative to a traditional dry sparkling wine, produced from fermented grape juice with the alcohol removed, blended with premium green tea. Notes of apple and pear with a good level of acidity. No sugar added, so low calorie too!

18. Belle & Co Rose

Bottle - 13.50 (12.20)

A delicately crafted rosé version of this non-alcoholic sparkling wine.
